Questions:

How did you become a believer in Christ?

Tell me about your current relationship with Christ:

How do you keep current with youth and youth culture?

Why do you want to speak to youth?

How do you keep yourself from getting a big head? (being in front of crowds a lot can do that to you)

How do you prepare a talk?

Have you ever given an invitation? (circle one) YES NO If yes, how did you do it- and how did it go?

Will your spouse and family be supportive of your involvement in this ministry? (circle one) YES NO In a sentence or two, explain how you can be proactive about not putting them second to your speaking ministry:

THE SOURCE would like three character references that it may call:

Which speaker s network would you like to apply for?

A NETWORK: These speakers would make $500 a weekend, or $1,000 a week.

B NETWORK: These speakers would make $1,000 a weekend, or $1,500 a week.

This speaker s network exists to make it easy for youth ministries to find affordable speakers in their area. In order to provide this, we are setting a price that will be even across the board. The booking party will always pay the set price AND provide acceptable room and board. Speakers will always pay for their own travel costs. THE SOURCE will advertise acceptable travel distance as 3 hours. If someone books you from outside of your area (3 hours), you charge the same fee, plus acceptable travel.

THE SOURCE will be trusting you to handle speaking engagements professionally, within these guidelines, and with integrity. You re responsible for all booking, communication and collecting of fees. THE SOURCE is only acting as a referral service and has the right to stop recommending you at any time.

You understand that you must report all income you receive to the IRS. You understand that you are not acting as an employee of THE SOURCE FOR YOUTH MINISTRY. On any of these speaking engagements, you understand the possibility of unforeseen hazards and know the inherent possibility of risk. You agree not to hold THE SOURCE FOR YOUTH MINISTRY, its leaders, employees, or volunteers liable for damages, losses, diseases, or injuries incurred.

By signing this, you are agreeing that all these terms and conditions are acceptable to you.
